Church service and destroyed church equipment

The youth who were holding machetes, sticks and other offensive weapons were against the church's playing of musical instruments and singing due to the ban on drumming and noise making in some Ga communities.

Canopies, musical instruments, chairs, and tables are some of the church's items that were destroyed. The congregation and onlookers had to run helter-skelter for their lives as the angry youth were burnt on harming anyone they set eyes on.

Everyone who was seen dressed decently was attacked since they suspect the person had come to the church.

The youth succeeded in locking the church leaders, pastors and some members in the main church auditorium.

It took the interventions of some elders around who knew the Ga youth to calm them down but they were not ready to budge.

Some residents who spoke to Onua News explained that the church started service around 7pm on praises were ongoing, the Ga youth, most of whom wear dreadlocks, stormed the church premises to halt the service.

The residents said this did not go down well with some of the church leaders who started arguing with the youth. This generated into a heated argument and the Ga youth had no option than to bring out machetes, sticks, and other sharp objects to disrupt the service and also destroy the church's property.

None of the church leaders and pastors present was ready to speak to Onua News after the incident.

This is cheap and unethical at best and sickening and deceptive at worst. Compare your photoshopped-chapel to the real Winners Chapel-Gbawe and compare your purported 7pm service time to the 6pm on the church's billboard.

It would have cost you nothing to cross-check your facts, this story demonstrate that, you are "burnt" on misleading the public

You're a terrible reporter. You are reporting falsified news. The image is not the gbawe branch and no property of the church was destroyed. Onua/3 news get your facts right before tarnishing the image of the church. Instruments weren't even being used that night. No one bothered to speak to any pastor or Church leader. If you had, you'd have known that it was the church leaders who calmed the angry youth. You'll be sued for defamation!
